7. “Agreement” means this Settlement Agreement and Release.

II. Terms of Settlement

1. The Parties, each having conferred with the counsel of their choosing and having the effects of entering into this Agreement explained to them by their counsel, FREELY, VOLUNTARILY AND WITHOUT COERCION, agree as follows:
a. As consideration for PLN entering into this Agreement, the dismissal of all claims against Holder and dismissing the Lawsuit with prejudice, the total sum of One Hundred Seventy Five Thousand and NO/100s Dollars ($175,000.00) will be paid to PLN on behalf of Comal County. The check will be made payable as follows: "Prison Legal News, a project of the Human Rights Defense Center (hereinafter the "Settlement Funds"). The receipt and adequacy of this consideration is expressly acknowledged and confessed. This settlement payment covers Plaintiff’s damages, attorneys’ fees, and costs for the issues resolved by and to the date of execution of this settlement agreement.

b. The Settlement Funds will be paid thirty days after the later of: (1) Comal County’s counsel’s receipt of a copy of this Agreement fully executed by PLN, as well as IRS Form W-9 executed by PLN; (2) Comal County’s counsel’s receipt of drafting instructions from PLN’s counsel; and (3) dismissal of Holder from the Lawsuit, with prejudice.

c. As consideration for Defendants entering into this Agreement, PLN agrees to dismiss, with prejudice, all claims and causes of action it has brought against Holder in this Lawsuit.

d. As consideration for Defendants entering into this Agreement, PLN agrees that it will not issue any press releases related to the settlement of All Claims or this Agreement.

2. As consideration for PLN entering into this Settlement Agreement and Release, and upon the dismissal of the Lawsuit, Comal County also agrees to do the following:

a. Defendant previously implemented a new correspondence policy for the Comal County Jail. Defendant will further modify and implement the policy attached hereto as Exhibit 1 (hereinafter the "Policy").

b. Not change the Policy in any manner that will make it unconstitutional.

c. Train all corrections officers responsible for handling incoming or outgoing correspondence, publications, books or packages on the provisions of the Policy.

d. Train all corrections officers who deal with detainees in the Comal County Jail what materials detainees may have in their possession in the Comal County jail under the Policy.

e. Incorporate the Policy into the Comal County Jail Inmate Handbook.

f. Post a summary of the provisions of the Policy regarding the materials that are allowed to be sent to Comal County Jail detainees in the Comal County Jail and the Comal County Jail visitation area.

g. Post a full copy of the Policy online on the Comal County Sheriff's Office's website.

3. The Parties agree that any substantive violation of this Agreement will constitute a violation of PLN's First Amendment and/or Fourteenth Amendment rights and will entitle PLN to bring suit for monetary and injunctive relief. The parties further agree that any such suit for breach of this Agreement and/or motion to enforce the terms of this Agreement shall be brought before Judge Xavier Rodriguez in the Federal District Court in San Antonio, Texas. PLN agrees to give Defendants written notice if it believes Comal County is in violation of this Agreement. PLN shall give written notice, setting out the nature of the violation of this Agreement with specificity, sent by overnight delivery, to the elected Sheriff of Comal County at the address of the Comal County Sheriff's Office as set out on the Comal County website. The parties further agree that Defendants shall not be liable to Plaintiff for minor violations of this Agreement and/or the Policy that are made in good faith.

4. PLN agrees that, upon receipt of the monies as provided hereinafore on behalf of Comal County, Comal County is discharged of all claims and causes of action, known or unknown, that could have been brought by PLN in the Lawsuit.

5. The Parties agree to execute any other documents reasonably necessary to effectuate the settlement.
6. The Parties agree that all attorney’s fees and costs will be borne by the Parties as they were incurred.

7. The payment outlined in paragraph II.1.a. above is accepted by PLN in full and complete settlement of All Claims, including but not limited to all claims for damages of any kind, or character, including but not limited to: claims of injuries to its business reputation and loss of revenue, attorneys’ fees and court costs that PLN may have or assert arising out of any materials sent to the Comal County Jail that were rejected which form the basis of the Lawsuit.

8. For and in consideration of the releases contained herein, PLN hereby FOREVER RELEASES, ACQUITS, AND FOREVER DISCHARGES Defendants from All Claims, contractual obligations, demand, or suits, known or unknown, fixed or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, whether or not asserted in the above case, as of this date, arising from or related to the events and transactions which are the subject matter of the Lawsuit which occurred through and including the date of signing of this agreement. This release inures to the benefit of all attorneys, agents, employees, officers, directors, shareholders, insurers, partners, heirs, assigns, and legal representatives of the Parties hereto. This release includes, but is not limited to all demands, and causes of action, whether arising at law or in equity, arising under common law or statute, in tort or in contract, that were or could have been brought in the Lawsuit.

9. The Parties agree to file with the court a Joint Stipulation of Dismissal with Prejudice within thirty (30) days’ receipt of the payment outlined in paragraph II.1.a. above. The stipulation shall incorporate the terms of this Agreement by reference and provide that costs be taxed to the party incurring same.

10. If for any reason a court of competent jurisdictions finds any provision of this Agreement, or any portion thereof, to be unenforceable, such provision will be enforced to the maximum extent permissible so as to implement the intention of the parties, and the remainder of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect.

11. The substantive laws of the State of Texas shall govern the validity, construction, enforcement, and interpretation of this Agreement. Venue on any dispute arising out of this agreement shall be in the federal courts covering Comal County, Texas.

12. The Parties to this Agreement agree that this Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties regarding the settlement of All Claims. This Agreement may only be modified by a subsequent written agreement which is specifically executed by the Parties or their respective successors or assigns. Besides the Agreement, there are no other written agreements, oral agreements, promises, representations, or oral understandings, of any type related to the release of All Claims or the settlement of the Lawsuit by PLN and Defendants.

13. This Agreement may be executed in multiple originals, each of which shall be considered an original and all of which shall constitute one and the same Agreement. Properly executed signature pages, whether they constitute original signature pages, or facsimile copies signature pages, may be attached to the original Agreement. Any copied signature page or facsimile copies signature page attached to this Agreement will have the same force and effects as an original signature page.

14. Each person signing this Agreement warrants that she/he is legally competent to execute the Agreement. Each person signing this Agreement on behalf of a governmental entity, corporation, partnership, or other legal entity warrants that she/he is fully authorized by that governmental entity, corporation, partnership, or other legal entity to sign this Agreement. Each person signing this Agreement as the agent for a principal hereby represents and warrants to the other party or parties to this Agreement, that she/he is authorized by the principal to enter into this Agreement.

15. The Parties represent and warrant that: (i) They are the sole owner of All Claims being released herein and that (ii) they have not, in any manner, assigned away any of their ownership of All Claims.

16. There are no intended third-party beneficiaries to this Agreement.

17. Each of the parties specifically acknowledge and agree that the purpose of this Agreement is to avoid protracted litigation, save legal fees, and compromise disputed claims in a manner and on such terms as will allow the Parties to move forward for good public purpose. It is expressly acknowledged and agreed by each of the Parties that the terms of this Agreement are contractual and not mere recitals. Additionally, the Parties specifically acknowledge and agree that by entering into this Agreement, neither party is admitting liability to the other party or any third party and that no terms of this Agreement or any consideration given has been or shall be constructed by the other as an admission of liability, violation of law, or any wrongdoing.

18. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto, and their respective heirs, successors, partners, venturers, owners, members, and assigns.

19. Each party hereto warrants and represents to all other Parties that no promise, representation, conduct, or consideration has been made by any other party to this Agreement, its owners, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, or persons in privity therewith, which has induced the execution of this Agreement except for those representations and agreements specifically set forth herein.

20. Each party to this Agreement agrees to bear such party’s own court costs and expenses, including, without limitation, attorneys’ fees and expenses.
IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties hereto have respectfully duly executed this Agreement in multiple counterparts or have caused it to be executed on their behalf as of the date of the acknowledgment of such signatures.
